

Dr. Price's CREAM BAKING POWDER

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder contains no alum or lime phosphate.

Chemists have shown that a large percentage of the chemicals of which alum baking powders are made remains in the food in the form of Glauber's salt, hydrate of aluminum and other impurities.

Read the label on the can. Reject a baking powder unless the label shows cream of tartar.

IF YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, CONSTIPATED

Look Mother! If tongue is coated, cleanse little bowels with "California Syrup of Figs."

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

Miss Eulah Harding returned to her home west of town Saturday after closing her contract with the Triplett school last term. Miss Harding will attend teachers training course at Missouri University during the summer and will leave next week to begin study.

Restored to Good Health

"I was sick for four years with stomach trouble," writes Mrs. Otto Gans, Zanesville, Ohio. "I lost weight and felt so weak that I almost gave up hope of being cured. A friend told me about Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using two bottles of them I have been a well woman." Obtainable everywhere.

More Ships Aground

Another cruiser aground. The North Carolina off the Alexandria water front. Our navy beats the world in getting on mud banks, butting into each other, settling firmly on the bottom turning wrongside up and doing other fantastic tricks of the aquatic birds. There seems to be something vitally lacking in ginger in our navy and army and it may be that it will take a war with some other nation to awaken the Seven Sleepers that seem to stretch their forms over this country.

No Use For Him

The handsome young minister always stationed himself at the door after the service, in order to greet his parishioners as they filed out. One Sabbath morning along came a raw Swedish maid, a stranger, so, with his usual cordiality, the minister grasped her hand, and said "I am very glad to see you here this morning. Will you not tell me your name and address so that I may call on you soon? The maid looked him coldly in the eye, and withdrawing her hand, replied, "I tank you, but I got one steady fella already; he come twice a week, and I tank he no like you to come."
